

SUMMER READING
CHARLESTON DAY SCHOOL
MIDDLE SCHOOL

The reading should be completed throughout the summer and not the last week of August. The main purpose of summer reading is to keep the verbal skills sharp. An added benefit is that summer provides the time to find joy in reading.

REQUIRED READING

6th Grade: The Egypt Game by Zilpha Keatley Snyder

7th Grade: The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton

8th Grade: Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

CHOICE

Read two books from the attached Recreational Reading list. Do not choose books that you have already read.

Students should write a total of two book reports, one for each book that they select on their own (not for the required reading selection). The appropriate length is as follows:

6th grade: 1 page double-spaced

7th grade: 1-2 pages double-spaced

8th grade: 2 pages double-spaced

Please also include the following information in the upper right-hand corner of each report.

1. Your name
2. Title, author, and number of pages
3. Date completed
4. Parent's signature

The reports should be expressed in paragraph form, typed, and fastened in a folder. The reports are due the first day of school. Your grade will be penalized by a deduction of 10 points every day that the entire assignment is late.

In addition, students will also be tested on the required class novels during the first week of school. Again, a report is not required for this selection.

Recreational Reading List for the Middle School

Dear Middle School Students,

The following booklist is in response to your requests for a list of “good books” to read. Each book on the list has been favorably reviewed by the critics, and many have won awards and been selected for “Best Books” lists. All are worthy of your attention. Some are “hot off the press,” and others have remained popular for a decade or more.

You have diverse needs, and you vary in interest, maturity, and reading level. Therefore, the books on this list vary in subject matter, difficulty, and depth. There is a special section at the end of the list for mature readers who want to stretch a little. The list has been divided into categories for easy selection, but many titles could fit into more than one category. Be willing to try a type of book you are not accustomed to reading. You might be pleasantly surprised!

You will see an * beside any titles that are part of a series or have a sequel. Generally, only one work by an author is listed. These titles are a starting point for your reading.
