

Summer Reading 2022

Rising 6th Grade

REQUIRED READING (all students read)
The Last Cuentista by Donna Barba Higuera

CHOICE

- Read two additional self-selected books that fit the given category/themes below.
- Choose books that you have not already read.
- You are not limited to the books on the recommendation list. Use the list if you need ideas; choose your own book if you have a personal pick that matches the themes! No graphic novels or picture books, please.

Category 1: An Unlikely Friendship(s)

Category 2: A Hero's Journey

Students complete two book reports-- one for each CHOICE book (not for the required reading selection).

Some guidelines for the book reports:

- One page double-spaced (2-3 paragraphs, 5-7 sentences per paragraph)
- First paragraph should summarize the setting and describe the main character(s)
- Second/third paragraph should discuss a few critical events in the story that changed the main character, revealed a theme, represented a conflict... discuss something you learned while reading. Stretch yourself beyond re-telling the plot.

Please also include the following information in the upper right-hand corner of each report:

1. Your name
2. Title, author, and number of pages
3. Date completed
4. Parent's signature

The reports should be expressed in paragraph form, typed, and printed. The reports are due the first day of school. Your grade will be penalized by a deduction of 10 points every day that the entire assignment is late.

In addition, students will be tested on the required class novel during the first week of school. Again, do NOT complete a book report for the required selection.

An Unlikely Friendship(s) Book Suggestions

How will I know if a book includes an unlikely friendship? Look for book choices where the main character faces a challenge and he/she develops a friendship with a person (or animal) that is not in the character's immediate circle. It is with a new person that does not seem like a match at first glance.
